

Professional Training Courses

USFA 1200 Commercial Pilot Qualification Course, Basic:

This course consists of 1100 Private Pilot, 1220 Instrument Pilot, and 1200 Commercial Single and Multi-Engine Instrument. The tuition cost includes the ground and flight training, materials, books, charts and all exam fees required. It is a complete cost and the student can expect to graduate within this cost. The duration of the course is approximately five (5) months, and includes 250 hours total time with thirteen (13) hours being multi-engine time and (30) hours being simulator time, and will lead to Commercial Single and Multi-Engine Instrument Airplane Land Pilot Certification.

The training includes Spin Training (Private Pilot), Unusual Attitude Recovery Training and Cockpit Resource Management Training.

Commercial Pilot Qualification Course, Commuter Prep I:

Includes 110 hrs. multi-engine training including actual instrument flying in terminal environments, with the Basic Commercial Pilot Qualification Course.

Commercial Pilot Qualification Course, Commuter Prep II:

Includes 150 hrs. multi-engine training including actual instrument flying in terminal environments, with the Basic Commercial Pilot Qualification Course.

Advanced Course I:

This course includes Multi-Engine, Single Engine, and Instrument Flight Instructor Certificate. Must have FAA Airplane category Land Commercial Certificate with Instrument and appropriate class rating upon enrolling. The total tuition cost includes all ground and flight training materials, books, charts and all exam fees required. It is a complete cost and the duration of this course is approximately (2) months. The student can expect to graduate within this cost.

Ground Instructor Certification Course:

This course includes Fundamentals of Instruction, Advanced Ground Instructor and Instrument Ground Instructor and will lead up to Certified Advanced and Instrument Ground Instructor.

Our Professional Courses are part of a packet arrangement, and until the particular course is completed and/or paid in full, regular hourly and apartment rates apply.